

Spring (Februar 2012)

I'm afraid of losing myself, something's strange
Can't find a reason
Indifference grows, it's devouring me from inside and
I feel no need to cry
I'm trying to tell myself everything is fine – in vain,
I better accept this mood

Oh Spring, when will you come
To make it end?
Please, please, replace your ugly brother
He's been here far too long

I'm wasting my time, I'm waiting for tomorrow,
Waiting for a change – an illusion
I'll never forget those sweet memories, I'll keep 'em in mind
When the bright sun shone
I won't wait anymore, just release me, won't you set me free?
To be in bloom again

Oh Spring, when will you come
To make it end?
Please, please, replace your ugly brother
He's been here far too long
